Gail Hodges has been hairdressing for 33 years, having trained in Bath and London. She has covered all aspects of the hairdressing trade, including working abroad, and has achieved the highest grade Certificate of Master Craftsmen.

Through her knowledge of her trade she has also gained many other qualifications and diplomas. Gail has built up an excellent reputation for her work with long and short hair, as well as her work for Bridal and formal occasions.

She also has flair and precision for designing and creating individual, contemporary and traditional styles using tiaras and hair ornaments for Brides, Bridesmaids and Mother of the Bride, thus complimenting any theme of wedding desired.

We recommend booking in advance to avoid disappointment.
